We are looking for new people to join Shabbas Chefs

There are different ways to be involved. You can be a Captain which means you'd plan the menu and prepare the meal before Shabbat and/or a Shabbas Chefs server on Shabbat. If you've thought about it in the past but haven't joined us, there's no time like now! Meet new people and get more involved in our community. Contact Wendy Friedman at wendynbeck@gmail.com for more information.

Spanish and French Books

The CBS immigrant support group is collecting items wanted by detainees at the Tacoma Detention Center. In the absence of any planned activities at the Center, they would welcome light reading matter (books, magazines, newspapers) in Spanish, and especially French because of an influx of Haitians. Toiletries are also welcome - shampoo, bars of soap, laundry detergent, sanitary napkins, etc.-which are expensive for them to buy at the Center. Please look for the donation box in the CBS lobby. The box will be here until the end of June.

How do we build and maintain resilience when times feel unsettled and unpredictable? Grounded in the work of healing historical trauma, this workshop will include interactive reflection, skill building, and discussion of Jewish history and cultural practices that are relevant to developing community resilience. We'll also learn how to apply research from clinical work around trauma, domestic violence and healing to challenges our communities are facing today. Registration required to attend. RSVP to Talya Gillman at (206) 861-8784 or for more information.
