FREE ADULT LEARNING COMING UP

Hop or Stop? Lean or Spin? with Tal Chen Rabinowitch

Shabbat learning, 10/21 from 1:15pm in the Beit Midrash

We will go over the ta'am of the te'amim (the point of trope!). Which ones should we stress, which ones should be smoothed. What does a hard or a soft stop look like and how should we read them. Which syllables in a word should we stress while leyning? How to decide on how to divide the sentence? We will start with a short introduction and teaching and have plenty of opportunities for questions and practice.

Jewish Weddings: The Basics and Beyond with Rabbi Paula Rose

Time: Sundays, 4:00-5:30pm

Dates: 10/29, 11/5, and 11/19

Cost: No Charge

We will take some time out of the wedding planning process to get to know each other, to learn some traditional and modern Jewish texts about weddings and marriage, to explore the blessings and challenges of Jewish marriage in a gender egalitarian and LGBTQ-friendly context, and to look past the wedding towards creating Jewish married lives.

This 3-part class series is open to all, but geared towards couples heading towards the chuppah.

Beth Shalom's Faith Action Network Meeting Sunday 10/15 from 10:30am in the Beit Midrash

FAN is a statewide consortium of 144 congregations that work together to support public policies. Beth Shalom formally joined the Faith Action Network (FAN), in 2016.

Last year, Beth Shalom was well represented at both the FAN annual dinner and at FAN's advocacy day in Olympia. FAN's successes in the 2017 legislative session included passage of state legislation relating to Anti-Human Trafficking; Criminal Justice Reform; Economic Justice/Anti-Poverty; Environmental Justice Gun Safety; and Mental Health.

Please join us to identify which policy issues we will support this coming session, and how we will mobilize advocacy at Beth Shalom. Please join us on Sunday, October 15th to identify which aspects of the new FAN agenda we would like to advocate for during the next legislative session.
