Remembering Our Roots: Yom HaShoah Remembrance Program

Thursday, 4/12 from 10am-Noon in the Beit Midrash with Rabbi Rose

Explore how family narratives are woven together to form personal identity, how the Holocaust and Post-War immigration affected our stories, and discover the connections that bind us all.

We'll build upon by Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr.'s commentary on family roots the documentary series Finding Your Roots, highlighting the connection between Bernie Sanders and Larry David. Learn about sources of our own "identity factors" and discuss influences of family upbringing, community values, genetic inheritance, and individual choice. This event is part of #NWIsraelFest.

The Book of Ruth - An Exploration through Different Creative Lenses with Rabbi Borodin

The rabbis say there are 70 faces of Torah. In this class we will have a chance to prepare for Shavuot through studying the story of Ruth (which is read on Shavuot) with multiple forms of creative and artistic expression as lenses for studying the text. No background in any of the art forms is needed. We will primarily study the artistic expressions of others on these books and have some opportunity for trying the forms ourselves. Two sections will be offered - evening or daytime. Classes will cover the biblical text, rabbinic and contemporary midrashim, music and poetry, visual art, and movement.

Wednesdays, 7:30-8:45pm: April 18, 25, May 2, 9, 23

Thursdays, 12:30- 1:45pm: April 19, 26, May 3, 10, 17

SAVE THE DATE: Shavuot 5778: Back to the Future Saturday, May 19, 7:00pm

All night learning, unrolling of the Torah, dawn minyan, and lots of cheesecake!
In celebration of Beth Shalom's 50th anniversary, we've done a lot of reflecting on the past. For Shavuot this year, join us for a night of learning and imagining on the theme of the Jewish future.

The Future of Conservative Judaism and Jewish Community

Hear from several generations, including our teens, college students and millennials of Jewish leaders about their hopes, dreams, concerns, and visions of what Conservative Jewish life might look like in 50 years. What is on the horizon, and how should our past inform our future?

COMMUNITY NEWS

Israel Civil Discourse

Sunday evening, 4/8 and Wednesday evenings, 4/11 & 4/18 at Herzl-Ner Tamid, Mercer Island

We live in an increasingly polarized society. Across America, friends and family have stopped speaking with each other over political differences. In the American Jewish community, Israel once galvanized and united us. In recent years, Israel has been a source of increasingly contentious debate among us. Jews have always disagreed about important moral issues. This is our strength. But, lately, the disagreements about Israel have become intensely personal and increasingly destructive.

Our goals are to increase our empathy for one another, to identify common ground where we can work together and to strengthen our community by learning that there is value in understanding each other more deeply even if it doesn't lead to agreement.

ENDLESS OPPORTUNITY

The Makings of a Seattle Symphony Season

Tuesday, 4/10, 10:30am - Noon at Temple De Hirsch Sinai, Seattle, 1441 16th Ave, Seattle

Join Amy Bokanev and Marsha Wolf, Development Officers with the Seattle Symphony, as they share what it takes to deliver the spectacular seasons our city has come to expect. It all begins with creating a culture that reflects the Symphony's values of innovation, curiosity, and service. Audience engagement is central to unleashing the power of music in order to lift the human spirit. Come learn the steps that go in to making these aspirations a reality. For directions, please call 206.323.8486 or visit www.templedehirschsinai.org
