Sukkah Building - and we can use some extra hands 9/16 & 9/23

Guenther Mannhalt and his daughter, Rebecca Moxley, will be setting up the Sukkah the next 2 Sundays, 9/16 & 9/23. The first Sunday will be the heavy lifting, putting up the structure, and the following Sunday will be putting up the schach and lights and finishing details.

We will be starting at 9:00am and going as long as it takes, probably until 4:00 or 6:00pm.

You do not need to commit to the whole day, an hour or 2 is all it takes to make a difference.

New Sunday Morning Parent Ed Opportunities

Led by Rabbi Rose, each session will meet in the Social Hall following pre K-2nd grade Tefillah, approximately 9:50-10:45. No charge.

Not attending Tefillah? Come and shmooze or grab a coffee from 9:30-9:50 before class begins.

Joy, Fragility, Gratitude Meets September 23th

A look at the lessons of Sukkot and how to share them with our kids.

Coming Soon - Yiddish Classes! Lomir lernen a bisl Yiddish tsuzamen! with Marianne Tatom Wednesdays, beginning September 26

Together, we will use the Yiddish language to socialize and converse with classmates, delve into texts for cultural and artistic insights, and draw on multimedia Yiddish sources from different time periods, geographical regions, and points on a wide-ranging religious and political spectrum. Students should familiarize themselves with the alef-beys before the first class (online guide available at <https://www.yiddishbookcenter.org/language-literature-culture/learn-yiddish-alphabet>). For questions about the class, please contact marianne.tatom@gmail.com.

And right after...

Rembrandt, the Bible and the Jews with Professor Shalom Sabar

Thursday, 9/27 from 7:30pm after KOGO food

Some art historians consider Rembrandt the greatest Bible artist of all times. It is no wonder that many Jews in modern times have been fascinated by Rembrandt's thoughtful interpretation of the dramatic events in their "ancient history." A central question that remains a puzzle to this day, however, is if and how was the artist's religious art indeed influenced by his encounter with the vibrant Jewish community of Amsterdam, comprised of Portuguese Marranos who returned to Judaism in Holland and Ashkenazim, driven from other countries by persecution. Despite recent attempts to "demystify" the association of Rembrandt with the Jews of his time, his fine work during the height of his career in the heart of Amsterdam's Jewish quarter left indelible marks on his art. This feature can be most strongly demonstrated, as we will explore in the lecture, through his sophisticated usage of Hebrew phrases in some of his most famous biblical paintings.

COMMUNITY NEWS

CBS' advertising of an event does not imply that CBS endorses the content of the event.

North East Seattle Together (NEST): Looking for volunteers

NEST serves as a village in northeast Seattle providing help, support and community events to our seniors. Our members all live in NE Seattle and frequently need rides to various appointments. We rely on the help of volunteers to meet those needs. If you are looking for ways to volunteer in their community helping their senior neighbors, we would love to hear from you. The process of becoming a NEST volunteer is easy. We can discuss the process further if you want more information, or please feel free to give your members our contact information to contact us directly.

Email us at: info@inestseattle.org or call us at: 206-525-6378 To fill out our online volunteer application, go to: <http://nestseattle.org/volunteer-opportunities/apply-to-be-a-volunteer/>

Using Online Historical Jewish Newspapers for Genealogical Research with Janice M. Sellers, Professional Genealogist Monday, 9/17 at LDS Factoria Church Building, 4200 124th Ave SE, Bellevue - (just off I-90 and I-405)

Doors open at 6:30pm, for all to enjoy the extensive JGSWS Library's genealogical resources. Free Wi-Fi available and come early to network with other attendees. Presentation starts promptly at 7:15pm. Free admission and refreshments.

Many historical Jewish newspapers are now available online, with more being added regularly. Most are on free sites. This presentation gives an overview of which ones are online and where they can be found, suggests access strategies, discusses what to do if you don't read Hebrew or Yiddish, and shows sample search results.

Film Showing: USHPIZIN (THE GUESTS)

Wednesday, 9/26 from 11:30am lunch; 12:30pm film at SJCC

$8 lunch (film free)
A couple's faith is tested by the Sukkot tradition to welcome guests when secular and Ultra-Orthodox worlds collide at this tense and humorous dinner. Unbeknownst to the struggling devout hosts, their guests have just escaped prison and are hiding from the police. The couple is challenged to take a stance when the guests have overstayed their welcome. Inspiring, heartwarming and uplifting, this critically acclaimed film has universal appeal. Co-sponsored with Herzl-Ner Tamid Daytimers. <https://sjcc.org/arts-ideas/film/>

Osher at the J: A House Divided

Thursday, 9/27 from noon lunch, 12:30 pm speaker, at the J, 3801 E. Mercer Way, Mercer Island

The Stroum Jewish Community Center is hosting David Domke, who will speak on "Polarized America and Seeking a Common Purpose," for the J's lunch-and-learn series with the UW Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, geared for adults over 50. <https://sjcc.org/events-classes/adults/>
