Thank you to all who made a High Holiday Pledge!

We hoped to raise $85,000 in this year's High Holiday Campaign. We asked you to stretch farther because our needs are even greater than what we budgeted.

We appreciate all of you for helping us raise over $120,000! We are still accepting High Holiday pledges. Any money raised will help us reduce this year's deficit. Thank you!

ADULT EDUCATION FOR THE FALL

For more information and to register, check out our webpage: bethshalomseattle.org/community-and-adult-learning/lifelong-learning/

The Do's and Don'ts of Shabbat, and What They're all About with Rabbi Rose

Shabbat observance sometimes comes across as a long list of "thou shalt nots," with the potential to seem disjointed or haphazard. Together, we'll search through some of the nitty gritty of the laws of Shabbat to discover underlying frameworks of meaning and substance, and we will explore how the rabbis' vision of a day of rest might resonate for us. Learners of any and all observance levels welcome!

Time: Tuesday nights, 7-8pm

Dates: October 30-December 11 (7 sessions)

Cost: Class is free. Donations to the Adult Education Fund are appreciated.

Responding to Challenging Times in Constructive Ways with Beth Huppin

Our tradition has a rich history of dealing with challenging times. This text-based class will look at wisdom our tradition offers for responding constructively to communal and individual challenges. Drop-ins welcome. No prior knowledge necessary.

Time: Tuesday mornings, 9:30-10:45am

Dates: November 6- December 11 (5 weeks, no class 11/13)

Cost: Class is free. Donations the Adult Education Fund are appreciated.

Exploring Heschel's Theology of Shabbat with Rabbi Borodin

One of the greatest philosophical books about Shabbat is a book by Abraham Joshua Heschel called the Sabbath where he weaves together hasidic, biblical and rabbinic concepts that have shaped the development of shabbat. Come deepen your appreciation of Shabbat with this two session class where we will be reading and discussing excerpts of the book.

Time: Wednesday nights, 8-9pm

Dates: November 7 and 14 (2 sessions)

Cost: Class is free, donations to the Adult Education Fund are appreciated.

Sunday Morning Parent Ed Opportunities

Led by Rabbi Rose, each session will meet in the Social Hall following pre K-2nd grade Tefillah, approximately 9:50-10:45. No charge.

Not attending Tefillah? Come and shmooze or grab a coffee from 9:30-9:50 before class begins.

"You Shall Call Shabbat a Delight"

A Conversation with JOSHUA SAFRAN 10/27 in the Beit Midrash

Jonathan Safran is an author, attorney and nationally recognized advocate for survivors of domestic abuse. His 7-year legal odyssey to free a Deborah Peagler, an incarcerated survivor of domestic violence, was featured in the award-winning documentary film, Crime After Crime, which premiered at the Sundance Film Festival. Safran's critically-acclaimed book, Free Spirit: Growing Up On the Road and Off the Grid, chronicling his remarkable childhood on the dark side of the Age of Aquarius, has been called a "beautiful, powerful memoir. . . reminiscent of David Sedaris's and Augusten Burroughs's best work: introspective, hilarious, and heartbreaking" (Publishers Weekly starred review). Join us to hear Joshua talk about his experiences working to free Peagler and own personal story of resilience overcoming the most eccentric and harrowing of childhoods.
This gathering is made possible by Jewish Family Service.

Critical Conversations- Important Thought Pieces Reading and Discussion Group, with Rabbi Borodin 11/10

Yard Work Party

Sunday, 10/28 from 9am-Noon

The lovely mild fall weather means that the leaves may not all be fallen but there is lots of other work to do. Our main focus will be on cleaning out & organizing the various storage areas to make it safer and easier to work around the shul. There is also weeding to do (always) and maybe some painting or minor carpentry. The next work party will be November 18 by which time I expect that all of the leaves will have fallen.

Sephardic Day @ the J: Jaffa Road Concert

Sunday, 10/21 from 6:30pm happy hour | 7:30pm show at SJCC $25 | $20

Jaffa Road is a highly acclaimed Toronto-based world music group made up of some of Canada's most exciting and innovative interpreters of intercultural music. The genre-bending, global roots band has established themselves as unique creators and interpreters of Jewish music in Ladino, Portuguese, Hebrew, Arabic, Russian, and English. The group has created a unique sonic landscape drawing on Sephardic Jewish, Arabic, Indian, modern jazz, rock, and dub grooves that takes listeners on a journey that is at once ancient and modern, acoustic and electronic, sacred and secular. In partnership with Town Hall Seattle.

Pnina Granirer - Light Within the Shadows

Monday, 10/22 from 7:00pm at Third Place Books, Ravenna

A Romanian Holocaust survivor, Granirer went to Israel where she served in the army and to the US and Canada, where she became an artist, exhibiting nationally and internationally. She writes with wry optimism of being torn between familial duties and being an artist. Her life and art have been shaped by new ideas, bucking trends and her community.
