History in the Making: 2018 Midterm Election Results

Tuesday, 11/13 from 10:30am - 12:30pm at Congregation Herzl Ner Tamid: 3700 E Mercer Way, Mercer Island

Pundits tell us the upcoming midterm elections are the most consequential in decades. What do the results mean for the future direction of our country: locally, nationally and internationally? Dr. Christopher Parker, an award-winning author of two books on American politics and a professor of political science at the University of Washington; Lynne Iglitzin, former UW Professor of Political Science and Women Studies, and Maxima Patashnik, Director of Government & Community Relations, Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle, will offer their views on this landmark event. Sandy Kraus, Past President of National Council of Jewish Women, will moderate.

For directions, please call (206) 232-8555 or visit <http://www.h-nt.org/>.

Parenting Film Screening & Panel: LIKE

Thursday, 11/15 from 7:30pm at Stroum JCC, 3801 E Mercer Way, Mercer Island $15 / FREE parking

Technology is here to stay. By understanding the effects of technology and social media on the brain, on our lives, and on our civilization we can learn how to navigate it more safely together. This film, by the producers of SCREENAGERS and ANGST, strives to inspire people of all ages to self-regulate their technology use, especially kids. It doesn't focus on blame, but rather it encourages people to look in the mirror and feel empowered to create balance in their lives and learn to be there for each other. Includes post-film panel of experts, followed by Q&A.
